

FLORIDA NON-PROFIT CORPORATIONARTICLE I. IDENTITY

The following By-Laws shall govern the operation of the Condominium created by the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

The Association whose name appears at the end of this instrument is a Florida Corporation not for profit, organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida for the purpose of administering (but not exclusively unless so provided in the Association's Articles of Incorporation) the Condominium created by the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

Section 1. The Office of the Association shall be at the Condominium property, or at such other place as may be subsequently designated by the Board of Directors of the Association.

Section 2. The Seal of the Corporation shall bear the name of the Corporation, the word, "Florida", the words, "Corporation not for profit", and the year of incorporation.

Section 3. As used herein, the word, "Corporation", shall be the equivalent of "Association", as defined in the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached. All other words, as used herein, shall have the same definitions as attributed to them in the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

* ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP AND VOTING PROVISIONS

Section 1. Membership in the Association shall be limited to owners of the Condominium units in Condominium wherein this Corporation has been designated the Association to operate and administer said Condominium by virtue of the Declaration of Condominium of said Condominium. Transfer of unit ownership, either voluntary or by operation of law, shall terminate membership in the Association, and said membership is to become vested in the transferee. If unit ownership is vested in more than one (1) person, then all of the persons so owning said unit shall be members eligible to hold office, attend meetings, etc., but, as hereinafter indicated, the vote of a unit shall be cast by the "voting member". If unit ownership is vested in a Corporation, said Corporation may designate an individual officer or employee of the Corporation as its "voting member".

Any application for the transfer of membership, or for a conveyance of an interest in, or to encumber or lease a Condominium parcel, where the approval of the Board of Directors of the Association and of the Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, is required, as set forth in these By-Laws and the Declaration of Condominium to which they are attached, shall be accompanied by an application fee in a reasonable amount to be set by the Board of Directors of the Association to cover the cost of contacting the references given by the applicant and such other costs of investigation that may be incurred.

*Section 2. Voting.

* (a) The owner(s) of each Condominium unit shall be entitled to the number of votes ~~equal to the total of the percentage of ownership in the common elements applicable to his unit ownership~~, as set forth in the Condominium's Declaration of Condominium. If a Condominium unit owner owns more than one (1) unit, he shall be entitled to vote for each unit owned. The vote of a Condominium unit shall not be divisible.

(b) A majority of the members' total votes shall decide any question unless the Declaration of Condominium, By-Laws, Articles of Incorporation of the Association, or Management Agreement provide otherwise, in which event the voting percentage required in the said Declaration of Condominium, By-Laws, Articles of Incorporation, or Management Agreement, shall control.

Section 3. Quorum. Unless otherwise provided in these By-Laws, the presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the members' total votes shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. Proxies. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and signed by the person entitled to vote (as set forth below in Section 5.), and shall be filed with the Secretary not less than three (3) days prior to the meeting in which they are to be used, and shall be valid only for the particular meeting designated therein. Where a unit is owned jointly by a husband and wife, and if they have not designated one of them as a voting member, a proxy must be signed by both husband and wife where a third person is designated. See attached amendment

Section 5. Designation of Voting Member. If a Condominium unit is owned by one (1) person, his right to vote shall be established by the recorded title to the unit. If a Condominium unit is owned by more than one person, the person entitled to cast the vote for the unit shall be designated in a Certificate, signed by all of the recorded owners of the unit and filed with the Secretary of the Association. If a Condominium unit is owned by a Corporation, the officer or employee thereof entitled to cast the vote of the unit for the Corporation shall be designated in a Certificate for this purpose, signed by the President or Vice President, attested to by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Corporation, and filed with the Secretary of the Association. The person designated in such Certificate who is entitled to cast the vote for a unit shall be known as the "voting member". If such a Certificate is not on file with the Secretary of the Association, for a unit owned by more than one (1) person or by a Corporation, the vote of the unit concerned shall not be considered in determining the requirement for a quorum, or for any purpose requiring the approval of a person entitled to cast the vote for the unit, except if said unit is owned by a husband and wife. Such Certificates shall be valid until revoked or until superseded by a subsequent Certificate, or until a change in the ownership of the unit concerned. If a Condominium unit is owned jointly by a husband and wife, the following three provisions are applicable thereto:—

(a) They may, but they shall not be required to, designate a voting member.

(b) If they do not designate a voting member, and if both are present at a meeting and are unable to concur in their decision upon any subject requiring a vote, they shall lose their right to vote on that subject at that meeting. (As previously provided, the vote of a unit is not divisible.)

(c) Where they do not designate a voting member, and only one (1) is present at a meeting, the person present

My Commission Expires:

Upon a finding by the Court that a violation complained of is willful and deliberate, the unit owner so violating shall reimburse the Association for reasonable attorney's fees incurred by it in bringing such action. Failure on the part of the Association to maintain such action at law or in equity within thirty (30) days from date of a written request, signed by a unit owner, sent to the Board of Directors, shall authorize any unit owner to bring an action in equity or suit at law on account of the violation, in the manner provided for in the Condominium Act. Any violations which are deemed by the Board of Directors to be a hazard to public health, may be corrected immediately as an emergency matter by the Association, and the cost thereof shall be charged to the unit owner as a specific item, which shall be a lien against said unit with the same force and effect as if the charge were a part of the common expenses.

Section 2. Negligence or Carelessness of Unit Owner, etc. All unit owners shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his act, neglect or carelessness, or by that of any member of his family, or his or their guests, employees, agents or lessees, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Association. Such liability shall include any increase in insurance rates occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of any unit or its appurtenances. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed so as to modify any waiver by insurance company of rights of subrogation. The expense for any maintenance, repair or replacement required, as provided in this Section, shall be charged to said unit owner as a specific item, which shall be a lien against said unit with the same force and effect as if the charge were a part of the common expenses.

Section 3. Costs and Attorney's Fees. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by a unit owner, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be determined by the Court.

Section 4. No Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association or of a unit owner to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by the Condominium documents, shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Association or unit owner to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition of the future.

Section 5. Election of Remedies. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or unit owner, pursuant to any terms, provisions, covenants or conditions of the Condominium documents, shall be deemed to be cumulative and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party thus exercising the same from exercising such other and additional right, remedies or privileges as may be granted to such other party by Condominium documents or at law or in equity.

Section 6. The Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, shall act on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Association and on its own behalf, with the same power and authority granted to the Board of Directors of the Association as to all matters provided under this Article VIII., Sections 1 through 5 inclusive, and said Sections 1 through 6 inclusive of this Article VIII. shall be interpreted as including within the context of such Sections violations of the Management Agreement attached to the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached. Section 2 above shall also be interpreted as meaning and including said Condominium's property and the recreation area(s) and facilities under the Membership and Use Agreement, both real and personal. The Management Firm may act upon its own determination or upon the determination and direction of the Board of Directors of the Association, as to Section 1 hereinabove. Should the Management Firm fail to act, as directed by the Board of Directors as to Section 1 above, the Board of Directors may act on their own behalf; however, due to the diverse types of situations that may arise between unit owners, stemming out of the alleged violations, the Management Firm shall not be liable or responsible to the Association, its Board of Directors or the unit owners, for its failure to act as directed by the Board of Directors as to Section 1 hereinabove. Under the provisions of Section 2 above, as to the recreation area and facilities under the Membership and Use Agreement, the Recreation Owner shall have the right to bring such actions and the right to obtain such relief including damages, attorneys' fees and costs as the Management Firm and Association may bring and obtain under the provisions of this Article VIII and said Recreation Owner may file such action in its own name and the foregoing shall also apply to the Developer as to the Master Antenna system and any CATV or similar or allied type use.

ARTICLE IX. ACQUISITION OF UNITS.

Section 1. Voluntary Sale or Transfer. Upon receipt of a unit owner's written notice of intention to sell or lease, as described in Article XI. of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached, the Board of Directors shall have full power and authority to consent to the transaction, as specified in said Notice, or object to same for good cause, or to designate a person other than the Association as designee, pursuant to the provisions of said Article XI. without having to obtain the consent of the membership thereto. The Board of Directors shall have the further right to designate the Association as being "willing to purchase, lease or rent", upon the proposed terms, upon adoption of a resolution by the Board of Directors recommending such purchase or leasing to the membership, but notwithstanding the adoption of such resolution and such designation by the Board of Directors, the Association shall not be bound and shall not so purchase or lease, except upon the authorization and approval of the affirmative vote of voting members casting not less than sixty percent (60%) of the total votes of the members present at any regular or special meeting of the members wherein said matter is voted upon. The provisions of Article XI. of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached shall supersede the provisions herein relative thereto.

Section 2. Acquisition on Foreclosure. At any foreclosure sale of a unit, the Board of Directors may, with the authorization and approval by the affirmative vote of voting members casting not less than sixty percent (60%) of the total votes of the members present at any regular or special meeting of the members wherein said matter is voted upon, acquire in the name of the Association, or its designee, a Condominium parcel being foreclosed. The term "foreclosure", as used in this Section, shall mean and include any foreclosure of any lien, excluding the Association's lien for assessments. The power of the Board of Directors to acquire a Condominium parcel at any foreclosure sale shall never be interpreted as any requirement or obligation on the part of the said Board of Directors or of the Association to do so at any foreclosure sale, the provisions hereof being permissive in nature and for the purpose of setting forth the power in the Board of Directors to do so should the requisite approval of the voting members be obtained. The Board of Directors shall not be required to obtain the approval of unit owners at the foreclosure sale of a unit, due to the foreclosure of the Association's lien for assessments under the provisions of Article X, of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached, notwithstanding the sum the Board of Directors determines to bid at such foreclosure sale.

ARTICLE X. AMENDMENTS TO THE BY-LAWS.

The By-Laws may be altered, amended or added to at any duly called meeting of the unit owners, provided:

- (1) Notice of the meeting shall contain a statement of the proposed Amendment.
- (2) If the Amendment has received the unanimous approval of the full Board of Directors, then it shall be approved upon the affirmative vote of the voting members casting a majority of the total votes of the members of the Association.

(3) If the Amendment has been approved by the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors, then the Amendment shall be approved by the affirmative vote of the voting members casting not less than three-fourths - (3/4ths) of the total votes of the members of the Association; and,

(4) Said Amendment shall be recorded and certified as required by the Condominium Act.

(5) Notwithstanding the foregoing, these By-Laws may only be amended with the written approval when required of the parties specified in Article VIII. of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

ARTICLE XI. NOTICES

Whatever notices are required to be sent hereunder shall be delivered or sent in accordance with the applicable provisions for notices as set forth in the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

ARTICLE XII. INDEMNIFICATION.

The Association shall indemnify every Director and every Officer, his heirs, executors and administrators; against all loss, cost and expense reasonably incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he may be made a party by reason of his being or having been a Director or Officer of the Association, including reasonable counsel fees to be approved by the Association, except as to matters wherein he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding, to be liable for or guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct. The foregoing rights shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such Director or Officer may be entitled.

ARTICLE XIII. LIABILITY SURVIVES TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP.

The termination of membership in the Condominium shall not relieve or release any such former owner or member from any liability or obligations incurred under or in any way connected with the Condominium during the period of such ownership and membership, or impair any rights or remedies which the Association may have against such former owner and member arising out of or in any way connected with such ownership and membership, and the covenants and obligations incident thereto.

ARTICLE XIV. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

Notwithstanding the duty of the Management Firm and the Association to maintain and repair parts of the Condominium property, the Management Firm and Association shall not be liable for injury or damage caused by a latent condition in the property, nor for injury or damage caused by the elements or by other owners or persons.

ARTICLE XV. PARLIAMENTARY RULES.

Roberts' Rules of Orders (latest Edition) shall govern the conduct of the Association's meetings when not in conflict with the Condominium Act, the Declaration of Condominium, or these By-Laws.

ARTICLE XVI. LIENS.

Section 1. Protection of Property. All liens against a Condominium unit, other than for permitted mortgages, taxes or special assessments, shall be satisfied or otherwise removed within thirty (30) days of the date the lien attaches. All taxes and special assessments upon a Condominium unit shall be paid before becoming delinquent, as provided in these Condominium documents or by law, whichever is sooner.

Section 2. Notice of Lien. A unit owner shall give notice to the Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, and the Association of every lien upon his unit, other than for permitted mortgages, taxes and special assessments, within five (5) days after the attaching of the lien.

Section 3. Notice of Suit. Unit owners shall give notice to the Management Firm and the Association of every suit or other proceeding which will or may affect title to his unit or any part of the property, such notice to be given within five (5) days after the unit owner receives notice thereof.

Section 4. Failure to comply with this Article concerning items will not affect the validity of any judicial sale.

Section 5. Permitted Mortgage Register. The Association may maintain a register of all permitted mortgages, and at the request of a mortgagee, the Association shall forward copies of all notices for unpaid assessments or violations served upon a unit owner to said mortgagee. The Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, shall not be required to maintain a register, as provided herein. If a Register is maintained, the party maintaining same may make such reasonable charge as it deems appropriate against the applicable unit for supplying the information provided herein.

ARTICLE XVII. RULES AND REGULATIONS.

Section 1. The Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, and thereafter the Board of Directors may, from time to time, adopt or amend previously adopted administrative Rules and Regulations governing the details of the operation, use, maintenance, management and control of the common elements of the Condominium, and any facilities or services made available to the unit owners. A copy of the Rules and Regulations adopted from time to time, as herein provided, shall, from time to time, be posted in a conspicuous place.

Section 2. As to Condominium Units. The Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, and thereafter, the Board of Directors may from time to time adopt or amend previously adopted Rules and Regulations governing and restricting the use and maintenance of the Condominium unit(s), provided, however, that copies of such Rules and Regulations, prior to the time the same become effective, shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the Condominium's property, and/or copies of same shall be furnished to each unit owner.

Section 3. As to Recreation Area(s) and Facilities under the Membership and Use Agreement. The use of the recreation area(s) and facilities under the Membership and Use Agreement shall at all times be subject to the provisions of said Agreement and to such Rules and Regulations as the Recreation Owner may establish from time to time. Any damage to equipment or the premises caused by a unit owner, his family, servants, guests, etc., to be paid for by the unit owner responsible therefor, and the cost thereof shall be a charge and lien upon the unit owner's parcel as a special assessment and the sum therefor shall be determined solely by the Recreation Owner and it shall be billed to the unit owner as the Recreation Owner directs.

Section 4. Conflict. In the event of any conflict between the Rules and Regulations adopted, or from time to time amended, and the Condominium documents, or the Condominium Act, the latter shall prevail. If any unreconciled conflict should exist or hereafter arise with respect to the interpretation of these By-Laws and the Management Agreement, the provisions of these By-Laws shall prevail, and as between these By-Laws and the Declaration of Condominium, the provisions of said Declaration shall prevail, and as between the Membership and Use Agreement and the Declaration of Condominium, the Declaration of Condominium shall prevail.

APPROVED AND DECLARED as the By-Laws of the Association named below.
